Key Verse

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6).

We learned this week that we celebrate Christmas because Jesus is the greatest gift of all (Luke 1:26-45; 2:1-20). Strengthen your family's faith learning and growth at home with this easy idea:

Parents ■■■■■

Talk about a time you were looking forward to a baby being born. What was most exciting about that time? Then discuss ways your family can focus on Jesus' birth at Christmastime. Find a way to celebrate Jesus this week that's new to you and will bring deeper meaning to the holiday, such as doing a kindness for another person, attending a special service, or spending time with someone who can celebrate with you. Or start a new Christ-centered tradition at your house. For example, after you open your presents, you might have everyone take a moment to tell why the gift of Jesus' birth is so special.

Pray ■■■■■

God, thank you for the amazing gift of Jesus. Help us spend time thinking about what's truly important during this Christmas season. In Jesus' name, amen.
