Jesus is alive.

Key Verse

“That if you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved” (Romans 10:9).

We learned some good news this week: Although Jesus died on the cross, he rose again and is alive today (John 20:1-18). Strengthen your family’s faith learning and growth at home with this easy idea:

Tell your own story to your children. How did you first learn about Jesus? What does your relationship with Jesus look like now? How has it changed from when you first heard about Jesus? Then ask your family to share their experiences as well. Remind your kids that Jesus not only died for our sins, but he also came back to life.

Pray ■■■■■
